

Your time at Reach will let you experience great classes, lectures and workshops, but the focus is really on providing an amazing overall experience, one that includes academics as well as a great deal of extracurricular activities and excursions.

Here's a first post introducing some of the activities our students get up to during the summer programs to let you get a clearer sense of some of the exciting events and activities you may get involved in during the summer.

The following short film was made by students in the July summer program in 2009:

Do you have a creative streak?

The whole film was produced by Reach students and one of the supervisors during afternoons and evenings. What do you think about it? Let us know in the comments :).
