Want to find out what the Community Outreach Program is really about? What activities and projects you could get involved in and who they might benefit?

Have a look at this wonderful Cambridge Reaches Out to Ghana - a blog started by the 2010 group of Reach Cambridge students that were involved in the Community Outreach program.

Do you think you'd like getting involved as well?