

You'll come out of Reach Cambridge summer school with new knowledge, a group of lifelong international friends, better English and so much more. Yet one aspect of studying abroad for a few weeks is often overlooked. We're talking about the forever useful lifelong skills that you'll develop in a new environment.

Skill No. 1: Doing laundry

Now, we do hope you're not as clueless as Mr Bean :). You'll have plenty opportunities to master this skill during your time in Cambridge as every college offers laundry facilities with washing machines and driers to help you stay as fresh as when you came with a suitcase full of clean clothes!
