

You'll come out of Reach Cambridge summer school with new knowledge, a group of lifelong international friends, better English and so much more. Yet one aspect of studying abroad for a few weeks is often overlooked. We're talking about the forever useful lifelong skills that you'll develop in a new environment.

Skill No. 3: Understanding British humour

In Britain this is a very useful skill to have, one that develops over time. We'll try and make your stay as interesting as possible, making sure you get a dose of British sights, British culture as well as the so well-known British comedy and sense of humour.

Here's to an unforgettable British summer!
