University Enrichment

Year on year, we are told that one of the biggest highlights of student's stay with us is the ability to live (and be treated) like a real university student. At Reach, not only do you get to live and be taught like a University student, you get to do it in one of the most historic cities in the world, and at one of the oldest universities in the world.

Academic Excellence

Some of the greatest minds in the world went to Cambridge, walked its streets and came up with some of their famous theories in its social hubs. Cambridge is the place where hundreds of students descend each year to partake in that tradition, and as Reach student you can too. We employ some of the best minds in the UK to come and impart their love of their subject to those who are curious about these very same subjects, and help grow their curiosity into a firm grasp of theories, concepts and practical knowledge.

Expanding Horizons

There is a lot more to Cambridge than just the academics. At Reach Cambridge, it is our privilege to enable students to develop themselves far beyond the academics. As an institution, Cambridge boasts not only some of the world's greatest minds but also its greatest actors and athletes. So it's fitting that we put on a range of activities to provide our students with the full university experience, from ranging from sport to the arts. We also offer students the opportunity to think beyond themselves by doing charitable work, helping to raise funds to provide educational opportunities in Ghana.

Fantastic Excursions

In addition to stepping out beyond their personal boundaries, we also endeavour to take students beyond Cambridge. Although students enjoy the privilege of living in Cambridge, the fun does not stop there. We make it a priority to allow our students to explore the many delights that the UK has to offer. There is the possibility of continuing the historic theme by visiting Stratford-upon-Avon, the home of the bard himself – William Shakespeare – or to move away from the scenic into the dynamic heart of London, where natural history, modern science and traditional as well as

Reach love for Oxford

International Experience

Last but not least, of course there are the people. We have students from a fantastic mix of countries joining us for our many programmes and you could be one of them. All of our students have loved building friendships with people they would never have gotten the chance to meet had they not joined us and we love making it happen.

So there you are, all the reasons Reach Cambridge is unique, if you join us and can think of anymore we'd be happy to include your thoughts!
