

It was an exciting day at Reach Cambridge today – week 2 arrivals day! Students arrived from all over the UK and abroad and were warmly welcomed by our week 1 students in the glorious sunshine. Once everyone had arrived, we walked into town to have a leisurely lunch and enjoy Cambridge in all its glory.

We then divided into teams for the 'Reach Cambridge Instravaganza'. We were competing against each other to tick off as many challenges as possible such as doing an epic boomerang near King's College Chapel and taking the best Cambridge-themed selfie! We all returned having become Insta-famous. Keeping checking our insta this week for the best photos from the competition today!

Back at Reach Hall we then had the Welcome Talk for week2. There are some exciting things ahead this week, including an excursion to London, some great subject classes and enriching soft-skill workshops.

Tonight, we had dinner at a nearby gastro-pub for some traditional British food such as fish and chips. We then rounded off the day with some 'icebreakers' – a round of fun games to get to know each other better and to end the day with a laugh. We will then head to bed for a well-earned rest before a week of lessons kicks off! Can't wait!
