

Today we have a different style of blog for you. Inspired by yesterday's lecture: 'Scare your parents; Become a Poet'...

TO BLOG OR NOT TO BLOG...

After classes Spiderman was seen,
in the cinema with students keen!

While other students did Creative Writing, on topics of their own deciding!

A Robotics Taster also took place,
with robots competing in a tight race!

Economics taster was the third course,
that made the brains gallop like a horse!

Pre-Hospital Medicine was the lecture title;
the info provided turned out to be vital.

At the end of the day (which felt so short!),
we finished it up with lots of sport.

Reach Olympics we held for our athletes,
(though everyone was given the chance to compete!)
The most points were given to Ice's Team, since they really did work like a dream!
