4. 'Coming to Reach Cambridge was by far the best decision I've ever made. Sure, at the beginning, I was a bit shy and timid but after a few short days I have easily opened up to everyone due to its welcoming and home-like atmosphere. Everyone is very nice and talented and willing to make many new and wonderful friends. The supervisors are all easily approachable, they are like your teachers but you can still socialize with them on a friend-friend basis. The classes are all very intriguing and interesting, giving me many opportunities to learn and think about my future. I'll definitely miss this a lot, and I wish I'll come again next year.' –

Nicole, Australia (studied Chemistry and Medical Sciences)
